TODAY'S SERVICE

God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

FROM PSALM 73

Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart. But as for me, my feet had almost slipped; I had nearly lost my foothold. For I envied the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. They have no struggles; their bodies are healthy and strong. They are free from common human burdens; they are not plagued by human ills. Therefore pride is their necklace; they clothe themselves with violence. From their callous hearts comes iniquity; their evil imaginations have no limits. They scoff, and speak with malice; with arrogance they threaten oppression. Their mouths lay claim to heaven, and their tongues take possession of the earth.

Therefore their people turn to them and drink up waters in abundance. They say, "How would God know? Does the Most High know anything?" When I tried to understand all this, it troubled me deeply till I entered the sanctuary of God. When my heart was grieved and my spirit embittered, I was senseless and ignorant; I was a brute beast before you. Yet I am always with you; you hold me by my right hand. You guide me with your counsel, and afterward you will take me into glory. Whom have I in heaven but you? And earth has nothing I desire besides you. My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever. But as for me, it is good to be near God. I have made the Sovereign Lord my refuge; I will tell of all your deeds.

JOHN 17:24

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

LLF Digging Deeper: The Bible, Interpretation and Sexuality

This Diocesan event will be primarily a conversation between three contributors.

Sean Doherty --- principal of Trinity College Bristol

Sarah Northall --- vicar of St Wulstan's, Worcester

David Runcorn --- writer, speaker and 'free-range priest'

The focus is not on winning an argument, but on exploring the similarities and differences between ways that Christians understand the Bible, focusing on the area of sexuality. This event complements the Living in Love and Faith (LLF) Course, and is offered in the same appreciative spirit of seeking greater understanding, not least of views different from our own. The event will be chaired by Claire Lording, Vicar of Pershore and Chair of the House of Clergy, and introduced by Jonathan Kimber. Anyone is welcome.
