

Something Else Sundays

Words of welcome and introduction

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you and also with you.

Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known and from whom no secrets are hidden, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

In you, gracious Father, the widowed find a carer, the orphaned find a parent, the fearful find a friend. In you, generous Spirit the wounded find a healer, the penitent find a pardoner, the burdened find a counsellor. In you, Jesus Christ, we meet our Maker and our match and if some need to say 'help me'
and if some need to say 'save me'
and if some need to say 'hold me'
and if some need to say 'forgive me'
then let these be said now, in confidence, by us.

Silence is kept

Lord have mercy
Christ have mercy
Lord have mercy

O Christ in whose heart is both welcome and warning, say to us, do to us, reveal within us the things that will make us whole.

And we will wait; and we will praise you.

The Agnus Dei may be said or sung

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

The Gloria in Excelsis may be said or sung

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth. Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father, we worship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glory. Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world: have mercy on us; you are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

This week's special prayer

This month's Six Questions and an Answer Interview

At St Wulstans we are a generous people. We celebrate that we can give our time, our care, and whatever else we have to share. If it's a week when we can, we bring a can as a simple symbol of all that we are giving.

All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above. We thank the Lord, we thank the Lord, today for all his love

Gifts and offerings are blessed

Generous God, in whose hands five loaves and two fish fed everyone in the crowd who wanted to eat, pour out your blessing upon the gifts and groceries that we have been given to give away, so that many more may find their seat at the feasting table of your kingdom.

We hear a reflection on today's readings and then we pray for the people and places on our hearts today

Let us declare our faith in God, saying

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named. We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love. We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high. We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.
